Biography

He was born in Erzurum, in 1990. He completed primary and secondary school in Istanbul. Aftermath, he had started to college education in the History Department of the University of Istanbul in 2007 and he graduated from this department in 2011. At the same year, he started the master program in the same department at the branch of the History of Ottoman Institutions and Civilization and in 2014 he accomplished his master with the thesis named as "The Catalog of Music Manuscripts in Istanbul University Library". In 2021 he completed his PhD about "güfte mecmuaları (lyric miscellanies)".

Harun Korkmaz has started to work in the Research Institute of Turcology of Istanbul University in 2013. He completed the classification and cataloging of the archive of Hüseyin Sadeddin Arel in the Institute. This archive includes one of the largest musical note collection of Turkish music. He was in England in 2018-2019 with the support of TÜBİTAK, as the guest of King's College London, under the supervision of Prof. Dr. Martin Stokes. He conducted a research project on musical manuscripts in libraries in London, Oxford and Manchester. Since October 2020, he has been working as a member of the Islamic Arts Science Committee in the 2nd Edition Project of the Diyanet Encyclopedia of Islam. In addition to academic works, he took a part in hundreds of programs and the concerts to introduce classical Turkish music in many countries like Germany, Switzerland, Denmark, France, Hungary, Latvia, Australia, Latvia, India, Nepal and the United Kingdom.
